

RESPONSE

TO THE ACTIVE SHOOTER AND MASS VIOLENCE INCIDENTS

August 5-6, 2015
8:30AM - 4:00PM

The question each agency must ask themselves is this.... are we ready for this in our community?

Hosted by:
Swannanoa Fire Department
510 Bee Tree Road Swannanoa, NC

We've reached a time and place within our society where the question is no longer if this will occur but rather when will it occur. We must employ best practices to protect our own while reaching critically wounded victims sooner for a greater chance of survival.

This program will range through response, tactics, and the integration of Fire, EMS and Law Enforcement.

The Topics:

- Review of Mass Casualty Incidents
- Tools and resources needed to accomplish incident related objectives.
- Casualty collection
- Force protection and entry groups
- Utilization of ballistic gear
- Understanding ICS for Fire, EMS and Law Enforcement
- Case studies with discussion
- Fire, EMS & Law Enforcement Command Staff Roundtable Discussion
- Tabletop Exercise

Only $250 per student!

Enroll by June 24, 2015 and get $10 off per student!
Enroll 6 more students and get $10 off per student!
Register at: www.taskforce1.net/programenrollment.html.
Pre-registration required by July 15, 2015.

The Lead Instructor

Battalion Chief John McLoughlin
Fort Lauderdale (FL) Fire-Rescue

John is a 20 year veteran of the fire service, the last 17 in Fort Lauderdale (FL) Fire - Rescue most recently as an Operations Battalion Chief and the Chief of Training. Chief McLoughlin holds a Bachelor's Degree from Saint Thomas University and a Masters Degree from the University of Miami. He has been a Fire Service Instructor for 15 years, teaching firefighting, Special Operations, and EMS. John has traveled extensively throughout the United States and abroad has served as a private contractor for the Department of Defense. He is Rescue Specialist on USAR Florida Task Force 2. He has been deployed several times including the Haiti Earthquake.

This program is appropriate for Fire, EMS, Law Enforcement and Elected and Municipal Officials

For additional information contact:
Deputy Chief Larry Pierson - larry@svfd.net